This is a Pisces Asdt Chart, with the MEP [Most Effective Point] at 27° 19'. An almost 100% powerful Benefic Ju, aspects the Asdt House [IH], from the IXH of fortune. Ma, ruling the IIH of family cohesion, wealth, and professional status, is exalted in the XIH of income and gains. The Mo, ruling the VH of children and emotional intelligence, is also well placed in the XIIH. In the Navamsa Div Chart, which also has a Pisces Asdt, Ju, from the Malefic VIH, is seen to aspect the Mo and the Su, and Ma, as well. Me, also aspects the Asdt, and brings in the Blessings. The Vimshottari Dasa Astrological Clock Time is also shown in terms of main periods and sub-periods. This marriage is scheduled to take place in the Ra-Me sub-period, very appropriately, as Me, ruling the VIIH of the Rasi Chart, naturally signifies the Spouse. The Me sub-period runs from June 2010 to Dec 2012.

Functional Malefic Planets [FMs] for a Pisces Asdt:

- [1]Su, ruling the Malefic VIH,
- [2]Ve ruling the Most Malefic VIIIH, and
- [3]Sa, ruling the Malefic XIIH, and
- [4]Ra, placed in the IVH, and
- [5] Ke placed in the XH.

The Functional Benefic Planets [FBs] for the Pisces Asdt are:

- [1]Ma, rules the IIH, and is exalted in the XIH of income,

[2]Ju rules the XH of the profession, is in the IXH,

[3]Mo rules the VH of progeny and emotional intelligence,

[4]Me ruling the VIIH of Marital Relationship [and representing the Spouse] is well placed in the XH [Almost 100% strong].

Weak FBs are shown in Pink color, strong FBs are shown in Green color. Ju, and Me are actually, only a trifle less than 100% strong, so we may as well consider Ju & Me to be 100% strong-hence Green color is used for them, here.

Table of Strength of Planets:

Each Planet actually stands for a Cosmic Life Energy, and maybe Malefic or Benefic. Each of these Energies is tested for ten different ‘strengths’ and it is only when a Cosmic Life Energy passes every one of these ten tests, that it is actually considered ‘Strong’, etc. This is the Systems Approach to Vedic Astrology [SA], and in this Approach, tests of Planetary Strength are very stringent. ‘A strong’ Planet in the SA is actually, very strong.

Afflictions in the Chart:

[1] The FM, Ra afflicts natal Sa, closely from the IVH. There are no other afflictions in this Chart.

Ve, is the significator for marital happiness, comforts and luxuries [especially in a man’s Chart], whereas in a woman’s Chart, Ju is the Prime Determinant for the husband. In a general sense, Marital happiness is more easily secured when these two variables are strong in the Natal Charts.

This is an Aries Asdt Chart, with the Most Effective Point [MEP] at 27° 34'. You must imagine that in every House [H], and there are 12 Hs in all, there is this 'MEP' - even though, it may not be explicitly shown. MEPs carry the 'Life' of that H.

The FBs, which are strong are: Ju, ruling the IXH, and placed exalted in the IVH [this is likely to give overseas residence]. Mo, ruling the IVH, is strongly placed in the XH, and is involved in a magnificent RajaYoga with the Lord of the IXH, namely Ju. The Su, ruling the VH of progeny is well-placed in the Asdt H, and Sa, ruling the XIH of friends and income is Retrograde and placed in the VH. Other FBs are weak, like Ve ruling the VIIH of the spouse is in the XIIH, Ma, the Asdt Lord is also placed in the XIIH.

So too Me, a FM Planet, ruling the VIH, ruling organs of the lower abdomen is placed weakly in the XIIH, and in its Debilitation Sign. Me is really very weak. Because Me is badly placed in the XIIH, we may consider Me and the VIH to be 'afflicted', in principle.

Here, we may note that, Ve in the XIIH is never considered bad, even though, all other planets, when weakly placed in the XIIH, generally suffer, and give less of their Grace.

Ra, a FM, is seen to afflict the Asdt MEP closely, but this is not such a serious affliction.

Both the Moons are Benefic and are in the Uttarashadha Nakshatra.

With these brief remarks we pass to 'time-frame' & other restrictions placed on the Vivaha Muhurta, as these will become binding on us.

Restrictions placed by the Client:

[1]Muhurtas falling on Tuesdays & Saturdays to be avoided,

[2]Muhurtas falling in the Tithis: Navami, Amavasya, to be excluded,

[3]Muhurta time before 9:00AM to be avoided,

[4] 'Sraaddha' Ceremony of Grandfather [falling on Jan 22nd, 2011], implies Jan 22nd, as well as Jan 21st, and Jan 23rd, to be avoided.

Restrictions[self-imposed], due to adverse Malefic Transits:

[1]Sub-periods [Bhuktis] for the Groom and Bride:

For the Groom, the Su sub-period will be running, between Nov 2010, & Oct 2011.[See strength of the Su in the Table on Pg 4].Su is well-placed exalted in the Asdt House.

For the Bride, the Me, sub-period will be running, between June 2010, and Dec 2012.[See strength of Me in the Table on Pg 1].Me is well-placed in the XH, and though shown Pink, it is almost 100% strong, hence the color has been changed.

Both sub-period Lords, in their respective Rasi Charts are Benefic, and these sub-periods are auspicious.

[2] Tr Mercury is Retrograde from Dec 11th, to Dec 30th, 2010.

On account of this Retrogression [during such motion, the Cosmic Life Energy, represented by the FB Planet Me, and ‘which is expected to deliver the life partner’ to the Bride, will be “curled inwards” during such Retrograde motion, so, this time frame will not be conducive to the ‘manifestation’ of that Cosmic Life Energy in the outer life of the Bride. Hence this period is excluded.

[3] Ju is the foremost Planet of Divine Grace in Vedic Astrology. It stands for the Sattvic Cosmic Life Energy, called Ganesha, by the Hindus. Between Dec 5th, 2010 and Jan 2011, Tr Ju is weak, as it just starts coming into Pisces, the Asdt Sign of the Bride. After Jan 18th, this Tr Ju becomes 100 % strong. As the Bride’s Ju is anyhow almost 100% strong [Pl see her Table of Planetary Strengths on Pg 1] in her Natal Chart, I wanted her Tr Ju not only to come into her Asdt House, on the day of her marriage, but also be strong, so, such a favorable position is reached after Jan 18th, 2011.

[4] The Bride’s Natal Ke and Natal Ra are at 10° 35’ in the Signs Sagittarius and Gemini respectively. However, Tr Nodes, Ra and Ke were also around the same positions, so they would afflict the Natal positions of the Nodes, and usually, this manifests as excessive stress, so, it will be to our advantage to wait, for the affliction from the Tr Nodes, to pass. By Jan 21st, this Affliction from Tr Ra and Tr Ke passes.

It is a Monday , a day which is auspicious to both Bride and Groom. The Tithi is Krishna Trayodasi. 'Purvashadha' Nakshatra.You can see from the adjacent Table of Astrological Clock Time that, the auspicious Ve Dasa is running, and within it, the Ve-Ve sub-period is running. Importantly, in the Navamsa Div Chart, Ve aspects the Asdt, which is Tula or Libra, highly favorable for marital settlement. In this Vivaha Subha Muhurta1, Ma is seen to throw its 4th aspect onto the Asdt. Though Ma is auspicious and a FB Planet, for the Groom and as well as for the Bride, as this strong exalted Ma, aspects the Asdt MEP on that day, one has to be more deliberate, inward drawn, as this strong Ma energy, in the absence of the practice of such Awareness, might unleash, rashness, anger, impulsiveness, impatience, and also excessive passion. The actual ceremony may begin an hour or two before, as this is the Climax of the Vivaha Muhurta.

All clocks should be synchronized with the IST, by dialing the BSNL Land Line 174, so that even one minute is not missed.

Vivaha Subha Muhurta2: Feb 13th, 2011.Sunday, Shukla Dasami[Tithi], Rohini Nakshatra. Mesha Lagna. The Su is weak, even though it is Sunday. Every Muhurta will have some strengths, and also side by side, some weaknesses, as no Muhurta can be perfect. The Mo-Ve sub-period is running. See the Table of Astrological Clock Time, in the adjacent place. The peak of the Muhurta, corresponds to the Muhurta Window: [10:09AM to 10:19AM]. This means, the elaborate ceremonies can begin some one or two Hrs before. All clocks must be synchronized with the IST [Indian Standard Time], by dialing the BSNL Land Line # 174, and ascertaining the IST, and doing the Sync. The strong Mo shows excellent hospitality, that may be extended to the guests of that day, who come to grace that occasion, while the conspicuous weak Su, may show, a patent, absence of an 'Royal Aura', created by people in power coming, etc. Note that in the previous Muhurta, the Su was very strong, so, that Muhurta would have that 'Royal Aura' that goes with a strong Benefic Sun.

The above Muhurta[Vivaha Subha Muhurta4] is an excellent Vivaha Muhurta, with almost all FBs, strong. As the Table of Planetary Strengths shows, even Me, Ju and Sa are indeed strong, almost 100%, since they are only a trifle weak. The highly auspicious Me-Ve sub-period is running, which is highly favorable. Ju is also some 90% strong.

Dissatisfied with the two Vivaha Muhurtas, which I arrived at, I started my search again, and found this Muhurta. Unfortunately, the Ra and Ke in this Muhurta Chart, cause an affliction to both your Charts, so I am unable to recommend the same to you. This illustration was brought in only to show, how difficult it is to arrive at an auspicious Muhurta. Muhurtas are some of the hardest things-very time consuming. Just for your education.
